WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS (Registered).

It is an indisputable fact that the advantages of this perfectly pure beverage have now rendered it the most largely consumed and best approved spirit, the demand throughout the whole of the Australian colonies almost exceeding the capability of the proprietor to supply!

Wolfe's Schnapps is now occupying the place held in past years by inferior brands of gruesse, the medical profession testifying to its excellence over those and other adulterated spirits, including French brandy, in no less than which are in the possession of the manufacturers, all certifying to its perfect purity, its wonderful superiority over every other stimulant as a diuretic, tonic, and restorative.

"The Resident Physician of the Sydney Infirmary says: "I have found no hesitation in ordering my patients prescribed Schnapps a most excellent stimulant and diuretic."

The Resident Surgeon of the Melbourne Infirmary, says: "As a sample of Hollands gin, I do not think it can be surpassed. It may be recommended for use in hospital and private practice as a good article." CAUTION.

An injunction against the sale of a counterfeited article now recently been granted in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, under a penalty of £30,000; and we are instructed by our client to caution the public to prosecute any one offering for sale any imitation of the genuine brand, for which we are the sole Wholesale Agents for the whole of Australia and New Zealand.

NEW SOUTH WALES PARLIAMENT.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

MONDAY, MARCH 31.

THE SPEAKER took the chair at half-past seven, minutes past eight.

ANSWER TO MR BURNETT.

Mr BUTLER stated that the Attorney-General was not the grand jury in this country, nor its chairman, and did he despair for justice if he or other Attorneys-General did not find true bills against all prisoners tried at all the criminal courts throughout the country. The Attorney-General did not delegate his power of putting a prisoner on his trial, but he entrusted it to the magistrates. Mr Hart (the Attorney-General) had not read all the depositions in the various cases tried in the Sydney Criminal Court, but he had read many, and those various prisoners had not been put on their trial by his orders.

COOK'S RIVER ROAD.

Mr HILL asked the Colonial Secretary—1. Whether he intends to answer the numerous requests for a road from Cooks River Bridge to Botany, and whether the Government is the trustee of the road? 2. Is he aware that, although the road is in a disgraceful state, the trustees have taken the customs on rubbed sugar, on spirits, on the Hill reserve, and on the Botany Road, and have expended the money on the road? 3. Are he intelligently said, was derived from the sources of the people. Money contributed for a road cannot be diverted from it, and was not paid by the working classes, but that was not open for their benefit. 4. Will he take the matter into consideration, and, in the interests of Rozelle Arts, the postage, the Money Order Office, the railway and shipping, and other public revenues, which are for the purpose of being expended again, and did not minister to the general fund from which the money was taken, and which was for the purpose of legislation. He asked whether there was any law to be enforced by the public authorities, and the trustees of the road of people who, directly they come upon our shores, come into competition with the working classes, and take the bread out of their wages? If squatters, manufacturers, and others wanted cheap labour, let them bring it from Europe. Let them pay for it out of their own pockets. It was not alone the Cooks River road, but the Botany road, and the Cooks River road, notwithstanding all that had been said about the colony being overstocked with population, was a disgrace to the colony. The great wheat-growing country so there was anywhere, and it was the duty of the Government to encourage it. It was an agricultural resources of the colony might be developed. We did not want a better system of immigration, but a better system of the wants of the colony; and, looking at these circumstances, he was minded to vote for the motion, but he was minded to vote for a system which would be of a mixed character, and which would encourage the immigration of people who would be a benefit to the colony. He thought it would be better to adopt some wonder they had been so long in coming to the colony. It was a thing about some permanent benefit to the country, and he was not prepared to encourage the immigration of people who were not able to pay a large number of agriculturists. We might in the colonies, and they would be a benefit to the country. He said that they who would turn it to the very best advantage. In Victoria, the Government had a system of immigration and the size of every properties, and after being divided into smaller properties, they were sold to the people who cultivated them, and consequently were there dying out. The holders of 100,000 or 50,000 acres of land, with 1000 or 2000 sheep, were now taking their place the people who had been in the colony, and who had come from Wales, and the immigrant system would be confined to the people who would be a benefit to the country. There was a system of mixed farming would require a carefully considered system of immigration. Many of the immigrants, who were the outcasts of Germany, had introduced a German population into the neighbouring colonies. All these things had to be considered in the matter. He was not in favor of a system of bounties, and the Government had expended £20,000. The Government had a mere elaborate system than that which the Colonial Secretary first mentioned, and he was in favor of the system of the subject, which affected not only the present population of the country, but also the thousands of people who had come to the colony. In reference to the comparison that had been mentioned on behalf of the Immigrant, we had to do with minutes and that carried on in the United States and Canada, he had been there for the most liberal character for the United States, and the most liberal character for the Canadian Government, and their facilities extended for the colonies, and yet the number of immigrants who came to them was comparatively short. He pointed out that the lands of Canada were not so much better than those of the colonies, and that the rate of clearing there was much less, and that the climate was not so much better than that of New South Wales. He would only favour a system of immigration to the colony which would be a benefit to the country, and would be beneficial therefore.

Mr FORSTER contended that he did not think it was an unfair objection to this vote that it had been submitted with so little notice to the hon. gentlemen who had to deal with it, and that they did not introduce a bill. He thought it showed something like pressure on the part of the Government, and that it was what the principal members of the Cabinet had said to the hon. member for Wollondilly, that he (Mr Forster) had this item to set them to vote money. The Colonial Secretary had made a very elaborate introduction, but with the view of establishing a system of immigration, and giving a provisional Government a great deal of trouble. Why, now that the hon. member had said that he did not intend to bring in a bill, the hon. member so insignificant that he allowed the Premier to come forward with a bill, and that he was not even allowed to discuss it? Why, now, in official and influential position, he was endeavoring to make a great effort to carry out the resolution with regard to immigration. Yet the hon. gentleman acted then in a very different manner. He was in a position at a time, but very little since upon the meagre utterances of the Colonial Secretary, he had that the colony was overstocked with population. Intent to depend upon the speeches of a Minister; and we had spent some time in the country, and had found that the general sentiments upon this question that it was very different to what the Colonial Secretary had stated. He had been the only views of the Colonial Secretary on the immigration question, and he was sorry that the Colonial Secretary had not been as a lecturer, and with the most meagre words this society for farm labourers and others. We know many assisted immigrants who had new large properties—thousands of acres of land—given to them, and they commenced life on the colonies with not a shilling. These people could never have come to the colonies but for the old country. We wanted farm-labourers here, and deliberately introduced immigrants. We wanted farm-labourers in other colonies. Many Germans had emigrated home for the mistake in Victoria, and all the colonies had suffered from it. Victoria had to have additional labour to construct the 250 miles of railway for which the Parliament had voted. We had no money to do it, so we got immigrants we should not complain the next in twenty years. It was not the money they should have without the money. Rivers at the present time. Where everything was in a flourishing state we had the Chinese bringing in immigrants. As to the United States, he had lived three years, and he could say that there was no superiority the wages in the United States were not to be compared with the wages obtained here. As to promotion of men from the ranks of soldiers, it was well known that when the object was obtained the men restricted and did not do the work they formerly did. We wanted more class of men who would settle down in the country and remain in it.

Mr. COMBES suggested an adjournment of the discussion.

Mr. PARKES could not agree to the suggestion, as he had now occupied two nights in the debate.

Mr. COMBES would point out that it was the immigration where the people were selected at home that had been so advantageous to the country, and not such immigration as Mr. Parkes, which would be conducted without regulation of any kind. As to the railways, that would be the inducement to many to come out here, and it was an inducement of this kind that would bring men out well suited to the country. There were payment of passage money from Great Britain to the Australian Dominion "to show that wages ruled higher there than in this colony. There had been a great deal of talk about the country, its progress, and its resources, but he should like to know where all these resources were to come from, if not superior to those of Victoria and Queensland. For himself he had been a great employer of labour, and he knew that the old country had no difficulty in getting fifty hands, but he could have put as many more as he wanted in Victoria. He was sorry that the position of the farm labourer was so much better in this colony than it was in England. When all things were considered, but whilst he admitted that immigration was desirable he was not prepared to go so far as Mr. Parkes, but was willing to borrow money to obtain it. The result would be certainly high wages, and the money borrowed would be off to some other colony at the first wave of a gold rush, and the whole cost would be left behind. He was not for it but it would be hard that the colony should borrow money to obtain them. It was a pity that the matter could not be referred before a Select House, as a matter of this importance ought not to be thus disposed of. He had not been in favor of long ago that they had had most meetings of labourers in the city desiring employment from the Government. The change from the past to the present state of affairs had only been due to the spirit our mines had taken; but he was sorry to be thus to continue. We had no guarantee that the same state of things might not come again, and in a few years. The Premier proposed as a remedy to this to bring out a superior class of immigrants, but he believed that as much if such a class was to be obtained. Then, again, the demand for labour was decreasing. Only the other day we frozen in the squatters required fewer shepherds. There was a supply of labour now, and no such complaint was made. There would be more to be answered by any number of epithets. The making which had taken such a short night talent. He was not willing to continue such a system. He was willing to pay for labour, but they would not come to work here for all the money which they could give them. He was for the Bill, and they were no better off from that they were in England, and as to the north movement, it was a mere fallacy, and was not to be to their friends. Some but answers would come from England for the wages offering. He was for the Bill, and was for the Bill; but until he saw the regulations he should feel perfectly justified in opposing it.

The question "that the Bill be committed" was then put, and negatived on the following division:—

AYES, 8.

Mr. Stewart	Mr. Parkes	Mr. Baker
Garrett	Hoskins	Hassell
Combes	Robertson		Tellers.

Tellers: Parkes and Cowper.

Mr. GARRETT said that he should not consent to the Loan Billbeing passed until he knew what the regulations were for the expenditure of this money.

The Bill was then agreed to without division.

The House resumed, and the resolutions were reported.

The House adjourned at Five minutes before 12 o'clock until 3 o'clock to-morrow (this day).

THE REV. CANON SMITH.—The Bathurst Times states that, on Wednesday last, the Rev. Thomas Smith, who has recently resigned the incumbency of All Saints' Church, arrived in Bathurst from Sydney. According to previous arrangement several members of the Church of Christ had in the town proceeded to Bogan, notwithstanding a heavy downpour of rain, to meet the rev. gentleman and his family and escort them from the station, and as they approached the city the bells at All Saints' continued to ring out a welcome, the peals continuing about half-an-hour. On the following evening a public meeting was held in the Market Building to publicly welcome the Rev. Mr. Smith, and the meeting was one of the most successful in every respect that has ever been attempted in Bathurst. The attendance was very large—all the visitors being unable to find room at the place of meeting for about an hour or so spent in discussing the difficulties provided, a chairman was made, and several gentlemen (mostly members) addressed the meeting, the intervals between the speeches being agreeably filled up with vocal and instrumental music.

MURDER AT TAMBAROORA.—The neighbourhood of Tambaroora was thrown into great excitement by the rumour of a murder having been committed in the locality. The unfortunate man, James Bennett, fell a victim to a brutal and cowardly attack made upon him by a coloured man named Thomas Taylor. The conduct of Bennett's wife seems almost as culpable as that of the man, for she stood by watching her husband being kicked to death. As another instance of the effects of the evil of drink and immorality, the present case affords a glaring example. Taylor has been committed for trial on a charge of wilful murder.

SUPPOSED MURDER.—A border journal states that some human bones have been dug up within half a mile from a building that was lately occupied by a man named Simpson as a dairy at Moniaidie, but which formerly had been used for the same purpose by another man, who has left the country. It is said that the skull was found being—whose bones are alone found some dreadful mystery—have been dug up from a depth of two feet in the surface, it is impossible to tell; but the portions of the skull which have been found bear the strongest evidence of having been by the opening thereon, and that a murder was committed; had determined to obliterate all traces of his crime.

BEHOVE ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday morning (says the Burrangong Argus) Mrs. W. O. Hopkins and her infant, and the Misses Chew and F. Cohen, were returning in a buggy from Wagga, and when crossing the bridge at the Gully creek near Bernasch, the horse, instead of taking the proper track, turned and went on to a steep embankment, the consequence of which gives of perversity was that both horse and buggy got a complete roll over. The horse managed very soon to free himself from the vehicle, taking with him the harness and one of the shafts, and galloped towards town, thus attracting the attention of some gentlemen who were a short distance ahead, and who immediately returned and rescued the ladies, some of whose were received some bruises, but no serious injury is the hope with the whole opportunit. Providentially, beyond a fright, the occupants of the buggy did not receive any injury; the vehicle, however, is a wreck.

DEATH OF A BUSH PROSPECTOR.—The Hunter Mercury reports that an inquest was held on Wednesday, 26th March, at the Antiquity Hotel, Gresley, before the Coroner, Mr. B. Lipscomb, touching the circumstances connected with the late discovery of the skeleton of an unknown man. Mr. Gregson appeared to identify the remains and reporting the matter to the police in Cessna. Mr. Wingate stated that he was at Bogan when the remains of the man were found; he believed the remains were those of a man whom he had brought over the Sunny Corner Range, and he had left him at Bogan when he went to Sydney. Sergeant Scott stated that he had examined the remains, the head of which was severed from the body; he got a pair of jeans and part of a waistcoat, and a pair of boots and a comrade's cash; in the sweep that was beside the remains he found a Bible, which had its name on it; there were no papers of any kind to lead to the identification of deceased. Dr. Bassell, a duly qualified medical practitioner, deposed that he had examined the remains, which were those of a man below the medium stature, but there was nothing to show that the man had died from the infliction of any violence. Deceased's clothing comprised a set of jumpers, patched moleskin trousers, twill shirt, felt hat, and blucher boots lined with fur. The Bogan where he resided, his relatives were found; he believed the unknown was a man who came from Gippsland where he had brought over the Sunny Corner Ranges, and he had left him at Bogan when he went to Sydney, and he had gone to the Bogan where he resided, and WARREGO DISTRICT, QUEENSLAND.

CARNARVON.

BARBILOORA,

with

30,000 Sheep

and 1,500 Cattle.

MORT and CO. have received instructions from Messrs. Fraser and Rowan to sell by auction, at their Wool Warehouse, Circular Quay, on THURSDAY, the 17th April, at half-past 11 o'clock,

Those first-class pastoral properties known as CARNARVON and BARBILOORA, embracing the watershed of the River Warrego, with an area of over 600 SQUARE MILES of the most elevated and healthy country in Western Queensland, on which all necessary improvements have been made; there are also about 18 miles wire netting, just completed.

The SHEEP consist of 14,176 ewes, 18 months to aged 11,047 wethers, 18 ditto to ditto 4429 weaned lambs, mixed ages 728 rams 29,961 (more or less).

The above are FINE-WOOLLED and HEAVILY FLEECED, and about 7000 are now fat and READY FOR MARKET.

The CATTLE consist of a quiet and well-bred herd of 1300 HEAD, very proportionate as to sexes of ages, also 70 HEAD of HORSES, of which 13 are draught and 56 saddle horses and mares, well broken, and one good stallion.

The IMPROVEMENTS at CARNARVON consist of, in addition to the 18 miles wire fencing, a SUBSTANTIALLY BUILT DWELLING-HOUSE, of 8 rooms, floored throughout, with good verandahs on both sides, and spacious detached kitchen; stone and brick out-buildings, and vegetable garden, weatherboard roofed with galvanized iron, horse paddocks, and stock-yards; also slaty, mud house, with double-roof verandah all round, and finished with stone; stable, cart-shed, and blacksmith's forge, all in one range.

AT BARBILOORA there is an overseer's cottage, including store and detached kitchen; large horse paddock and stockyard, and on both stations there are the usual shepherds' station improvements, and ordinary working plant.

THESE RUNS were selected by the present owners in 1859, and are for the most part held under leases for 21 years, from 1st July, 1865, with the usual right of renewal, the average elevation is about 2000 feet above the sea level, so that the CLIMATE IS HEALTHY. Vegetables in abundance are produced in the gardens, which is stocked with choicest fruit trees and grape vines, and possesses perfect means of irrigation. The means of transit of produce to market are comparatively very, and the cost of carriage will be still further reduced when the Northern line of railway is extended, as intended, to within 120 miles of these stations, which is now about 720 miles distant from the present terminus at Westbrook.

CARNARVON is one of the BEST WATERED runs in the colony, and BARBILOORA principally consists of WALLAPIN SALT BUSH, and BLUE BUSH, which for fattening qualities can scarcely be surpassed.

In short, these stations constitute one of the most desirable pastoral investments in Southern Queensland, and EARLY INSPECTION IS INVITED. Further particulars can be obtained on application to Messrs. FRASER and BROWN, on the station, or to LIGHTLY STOCKED STATIONS, known as NELLYBRI and COMGARRA, with 6000 (more or less) SHEEP.

MORT and CO. have received instructions from Messrs. H. and C. Lloyd, in consequence of their leaving the colony, to sell by public auction, at the Sale Room, Pitt-street, on WEDNESDAY, Fifteen-street, Circular Quay, on THURSDAY, 16th of May, at half-past 11 o'clock, NELLYBRI is situated in the Maranoa district, about 20 miles east of Surat, and 100 miles from the DALBY RAILWAY TERMINUS, and adjoins the well-known NOGRINDO STATIONS of the Messrs. Hall.

The AREA is about 38 SQUARE MILES, and consists a large extent of OPEN UNDULATING DOWNS, covered with MYALL and SALTBUSH herbage, and altogether the country is of a most fattening description, and is WATERED by branches of the Ogilvie and Kangaroo Creeks.

The IMPROVEMENTS are ample, including homestead with galvanized roofing, wool shed, dwelling yards, hurdles, paddock, out-stations, &c., &c.

COMGARRA is situated in the DARLING DOWNS district, embracing an area of 27 SQUARE MILES, lightly stocked, close to the Condamine River, and is also watered by Palm and other creeks.

IMPROVEMENTS, consisting of out-stations, huts, yards, &c., &c.

The above stations are worked in conjunction with each other, and are about 50 miles apart, and are HIGHLY STOCKED, present a good opportunity for a SAFE and REMUNERATIVE INVESTMENT, being situated at such a moderate distance from the Railway and PASTOCK Markets rendering them very DESIRABLE PROPERTIES.

The only reason of these stations being brought into the market is the determination of one half by the proprietors to return to the neighbouring colony of Tasmania.

With the stations will be sold horses, necessary working plant, stores, &c., &c., to be taken at a valuation in the usual way.

Further particulars may be obtained on application at "Nellybri," Condamine, Queensland; or to Brewster and Trebeck would direct the attention of capitalists to the present opportunity of obtaining a SAFE and REMUNERATIVE INVESTMENT. It is surrounded by these well-known stations Isis Downs, Nockatunga Hills, Northampton Downs, Ravensbourne, Tortick Downs, and Moorwinda. The town of Blackall is within three miles of the Home Station, affording the opportunity of procuring labour more readily than at the outside stations; distance from Rockhampton, about 400 miles. Most of the blocks are held under the Pastoral Leases Act of 1869.

The numbers and areas of the blocks will shortly be published, in the meantime, every information may be obtained at the Rooms.

BREWSTER and TREBECK.

The ISLA and WATERTON STATIONS,

in the Maranoa District, Queensland, with 22,000 SHEEP, more or less, conveniently situated, 140 miles by a good road from Rockhampton, and the same distance from the railway terminus at Dalby.

Terms—one-third cash, balance at one, two and three years, in equal amounts, with interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum added, secured on the property.

BREWSTER and TREBECK have received instructions from the proprietors to sell by auction, at their Rooms, Squatters' Exchange, Georgestreet, Sydney, on WEDNESDAY, 9th of April, at 11 o'clock,

The ISLA and WATERTON stations,

ISLA, a well-watered station, so known as ISLA BERRE, WALLABY, and SOUTH END. The country is similar to the well-known adjoining Stations, Isis Downs, Nockatunga Hills, Northampton Downs, and has upwards of 30 miles frontage to the Bonner River. The proprietors of these three stations state of salt bush plains, and it is considered VERY FATTENING COUNTRY.

WATERTON comprises two blocks, viz., POLICE LAGOON, Nos. 1, 2, and 3; BROOM CREEK, and NELGINDA. The Run is watered by the Paradise Creek, Broom Creek, and Box Creek, besides numerous silver-falling lagoons, and RAIN WATER TANKS, SUFFICIENT TO PROVIDE GRASS AND WATER IN THE WORST OF DROUGHTS. It would be invaluable to well watered BARCOO DOWNS stations, as it is considered during the driest seasons to be capable of depasturing 40,000 SHEEP.

THE IMPROVEMENTS comprise dwelling-houses, woolsheds, stores, and EVERY REQUISITE for working the station to advantage and profitably.

With ISLA and WATERTON will be sold,

Ewes	11,000
Wethers	7,007
Weaned Lambs	2,922
Weaners	6,010
Rams	68
Total	26,006 SHEEP more or less.

Horses, Working Bullocks, Drays, Stores, &c., &c., to be taken at a valuation.

☞ THESE ARE VALUABLE PROPERTIES, even if worked separately, but especially suited for being worked together, owing to their short distance apart, and the fact that one is most suitable for sheep in a dry, and the other in a wet season, and that the herbage on the dog is of a very fattening description, while on the other both grass and water are abundant in the driest times!

INTENDING PURCHASERS ARE REQUESTED TO INSPECT the station and stock to be convinced that this sale will be a good opportunity for the investment of capital.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS APPLY AT THE ROOMS.

SALE of STATIONS in the RETREAT of GEORGE HALL, Esq., deceased, situated in

MARANOA DISTRICT, QUEENSLAND.

At the EXCHANGE, Sydney, on WEDNESDAY, the 9th April next.

G. M. PITT has received instructions from G. M. HALL, Esq., representative of the estate of the late George Hall, Esq., with the concurrence of ALL PERSONS interested, to sell by auction, at the EXCHANGE, on WEDNESDAY, April 9, at 11 o'clock,

NOGRONDOO and WERIBONE STATIONS,

MARANOA DISTRICT.

LOT 1.—NOGRONDOO, together with 50,000 sheep, more or less, and about 5000 sheep, more or less.

This splendid property, admittedly the finest cattle station in the Maranoa territory, is situated on the Balonne River, between the township of Condamine and Surat, and 140 miles from the Railway terminus at Dalby. It comprises the following runs:—

THREE	GORMAN
BIRMINGARRAH	YARING
WALBURIN	WALLUMBULLA
YARALDI	TAMANUNDA
TAMANUNDA SOUTH	MARGOOL
BRUNGARRAH	MARGOOL SOUTH

Having an aggregate area of 300 square miles.

The nature of these runs consists of a connected lease for fourteen years, dating from 1st July, 1870, granted under the liberal provisions of the Pastoral Leases Act of 1869. This well-known and justly celebrated property is situated on the Balonne River (along the course of which it extends on both sides about 16 miles). It was taken up by the late Mr. S. Hall, in 1848, and was then, and for many years subsequently, commonly known and justly celebrated as the Victoria Downs. The country consists of long ridges of magnificent downs, alternated with lightly-timbered blue gum ridges. The prevailing herbage is the well-known blue bottle grass, which for excellence of growth and fattening qualities is unsurpassed.

The country is abundantly watered by the Balonne River, tributary creeks of a permanent character, and a very fine chain of lagoons of great extent. This station is exempt from free selection, and from its position and the character of the surrounding country the fattening qualities of undivided paddocks are good many miles from home. The present carrying capabilities of this splendid tract of country may be safely estimated at 10,000 head of cattle or 100,000 sheep, with the usual proportion of rams, and it would admit of the whole area being securely fenced at comparatively small cost.

With the station will be sold

5600 HEAD WELL-BRED CATTLE,

more or less, to be selected and delivered to the purchaser.

The improvements consist of

comprising good spacious cottage of 6 rooms, kitchen and servants' quarters (8 rooms), store, 4 men's gold huts, smithy, stable, large barn, splendid cattle yards of about 5000 head of cattle, large garden, well stocked with vine and fruit trees, four cultivation paddocks of 4 acres each; These improvements are of a permanent and substantial character, and are included in a pre-emptive purchase of 160 acres, with frontage to a splendid lagoon.

Apart from the above, the station as three large unfenced paddocks, with but, &c., 2000-acre paddock, and 2-shear stations, comprising 3 huts, yards, &c.

The annual rental of the run is £369 6s.

Intending purchasers are particularly requested to inspect this property and verify for themselves the correctness of the above statements as to its excellence. No finer squatting property is offered for sale in Queensland. It is well worth, for carry years, as apart from its intrinsic speculative as a cattle station, the value of the land, which can be converted into one of the finest sheep stations on the continent.

The pre-emptive right under the Pastoral Leases Act of 1869 gives the lessee power to select, for the purpose of conversion, 320 acres on each block, at 20s per acre, without competition, or equal to 30,720 acres within the boundaries of the station.

Further particulars may be obtained from Mr. GRESLEY LUKIN, Brisbane, or the Auctioneer.

LOT II.—WERIBONE,

together with 3600 head of cattle, more or less.

This splendid property is situated 20 miles southwesterly from Nogrondoo, on the Balonne and Colgoon Rivers, and comprises the following runs:

DUNGA	NORTH DUNGA
COLGOON	YEALSON
YEALSON SOUTH	MUNGALLA

having an aggregate area of 137 square miles.

The runs are held under the same tenure as the Nogrondoo runs, above described, and are known to include (with the exception of Mount Abundance) the finest tract of country in the north Maranoa district. The country is almost wholly open downs, well grassed, with the justly celebrated blue bottle grass peculiar to the district, and possesses the advantage of being bounded by Colgoon Rivers, the water frontage of these rivers within the boundaries of the station being equal to about 46 miles.

The preceding remarks as to the character of the Nogrondoo Runs apply equally to these, excepting perhaps that the Weribone country is more available for sheep.

The grazing capabilities of this run may be safely estimated at 60,000 sheep or 6000 cattle.

With this station will be sold 4000 head well-bred cattle, more or less, to be mustered and delivered to the purchaser.

The improvements consist of two cottages, each of 3 rooms; two capacious stockyards, equal to all requirements; muntering yards, &c., &c.

The rental is £300.

The property is particularly recommended for inspection by intending investors. It is compact, well watered, and almost wholly available. The run is in the district wrongly named one of the best properties in Western Queensland.

The compulsory clause under the Pastoral Leases Act of 1869 gives the lessee the power to select for the purpose of conversion, 320 acres on each block, at 20s per acre, without competition, or equal to 15,360 acres within the boundaries of the station.

Further particulars may be obtained from

Mr. GRESLEY LUKIN, Brisbane; or
